50X1-HUM

1. The military reorganization of the Volkspolizei has not yet taken place, although it is thought to be imminent.
2. "Training grounds" [redacted] such as those at Drewitz, 50X1-HUM Neubrandenburg and Frenzlaue, are actually military camps. There are usually several thousand men at each and the only unit designations used are "regiment" and "company". There are no "alert troop" units. A typical designation for a unit at a "training ground" would be: 8th Company, 2nd Police Regiment, Drewitz Training Ground, Mecklenburg. The regimental numbers run consecutively at each "training ground", independent of regimental numbers at other "training grounds". There is, for example, another 2nd Regiment at the Anklam-Heide Training Ground.
3. All garrisoned police units in Mecklenburg and Pommern belong to the "Volkspolizei Mecklenburg" and are under the command of the "Volkspolizei Mecklenburg Command" in Gueströw. There are between 40,000 and 45,000 members.
